Making a splash

ON Sept. 29, Courteney Cox Arquette put in face time as host of a CeleBration on the Pier, sponsored by skin-care company Kinerase. But it was her hubby, 1. and 2. David Arquette, who really made a splash. Also manning up for dunk-tank duties: Balthazar Getty and Dermot Mulroney. James Marsden didn't need a change of clothes; he stayed dry on the bumper-car track. 3. Adam Sandler, kidding around with daughter Sadie and wife Jackie, rode the roller coaster and tried his hand at the basketball toss booth. His "Click" co-star, Kate Beckinsale, exited the Santa Monica Pier with an armful of stuffed-animal prizes, but the EB Medical Research Foundation was the real winner, taking home $150,000 to kick off awareness month for epidermolysis bullosa, a painful skin disease.
